

SORCERER IS COMING AGAIN

Performance for Benefit of Associated Charities Will Be Put On By School of Music Friday Night This Week

In response to the popular demand for its reproduction, and because of her authorization by the cast to reproduce "The Sorcerer" Mrs. Shirley Christy of the Arizona School of Music has consented to put that interesting little operetta on again, this time in a benefit performance for the Associated Charities. The date for the production has been set at Friday evening and the place is the School of Music Auditorium on North Central avenue.

There has seldom been a better opportunity put on by a Phoenix amateur company than "The Sorcerer." There were two nights of it some time ago, and this is proof that the people were not sated of it, that it must be performed again.

The need of the Associated Charities for a benefit performance of this sort just suited the plans of the directors of the school, and there was no trouble at all to get the consent of the cast to put the opera on once more.

The opera opens with the entertainment, at which the villagers assemble to celebrate the betrothal of Alexis, heir of the great Sir Marmaduke Poindeux to Allice, daughter of Lady Sangazure. Mrs. Partlett the new opener, arrives with her daughter Constance, who is in love with Dr. Daly the vicar, a confirmed old bachelor. During the celebration Sir Marmaduke and Lady Sangazure, renew their devotion of fifty years before. Finally the marriage contract is signed and the affianced are left alone. Alexis tells Allice of his "pet theory" that people should marry without distinction of rank, and in his joy he sends for the noted Sorcerer John Wellington Wells and employs him to mix a philtre, to be put in the tea which the vicar brews for the company; that will cause every unmarried person who tastes it, to fall in love with the first party they see. The result is a pairing off of all assorted couples. Constance falls in love with the aged Notary. Sir Marmaduke selects Mrs. Partlett. Lady Sangazure fastens her attentions on the Sorcerer, and the confusion reaches its height when, yielding to the wishes of Alexis to make their love eternal, Allice tastes the philtre, and straightway falls in love with the vicar, thereby enraging Alexis. However the Sorcerer at the proper moment "evaporates" and all ends happily.

To Grow Hair on a Bald Head

BY A SPECIALIST

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who having tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out, and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not rub the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 6 ounces; Lavender de Composed, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed, add half to one teaspoonful of To-Kalon perfume, which unites perfectly with the other ingredients. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics. Do not apply to the face or where hair is not desired.

OLD SOLDIERS FAVOR N. G. A.

Grand Army Men Support Measures to Increase Efficiency of National Guard So Notify Both Houses of State Legislature

The first of the G. A. R. petitions in support of the national guard, its organization and the building of proper armories, has been filed with the legislature of the state of Arizona. The old soldiers came out very strongly for all the provisions of house bill 34, which provides for the building of quarters for the militia.

In the final paragraph the veterans sound a warning to the people on the danger of sending inexperienced boys to be sacrificed on the field of battle, in the event of war, and calls attention to the general lack of training in the national guard of Arizona.

The resolutions: We, the members of J. W. Owen Post, No. 5, G. A. R., are in favor of any legislation that may provide adequate means that the young men of our country may be properly trained to be able to offer their services to their country in time of war, knowing the immense loss of life that has occurred in the past because our armies were not trained before service, either in the arts of war or to a knowledge of proper sanitary conditions. We hold that the men who pass restrictive legislation to prevent this proper training shall be answerable to the mothers and fathers whose patriotic sons offer their untrained services when their country needs them. We hold that such a course will not be countenanced by either patriotic or progressive men or women that it is contrary to the principles under which this government was founded. That it is contrary to the principles of the constitution and to the written of that father of the constitution, Thomas Jefferson, who said: "A well-armed and organized militia is necessary for a people who are free and intend to remain so." We hold that such legislation is not economical, but is anarchistic. The opinions we hold are those already expressed by the president of the United States and by the secretary of war.

Now, therefore, be it Resolved, that we urge all patriotic members of the present state legislature to work for the passage of house bill 34 that provides for the construction of armories, and to provide adequate funds for the support of the national guard. Be it further

Resolved, that in case of war in the near future, or local disturbances that may occur as a result of war, we intend that the people of this state shall know who are responsible for the sending of untrained boys to offer up their lives when training might be given by the passage of reasonable appropriations by the legislature, and we pledge ourselves to furnish this information to the people of this state so that they may know on whose shoulders should lie the blame for the lives lost.

Adj't for the Post
There has been considerable milling around the state house in connection with the national guard support, and the bills that have been introduced calculated to increase the efficiency of the citizen soldiers. The chief miller in this particular has been Senator Roberts, who has an undying hatred of the national guard and everything that looks like a militiaman. During the last session the military code was passed in such a manner as to practically give the general staff of the guard the run of the treasury of the state, if Senator Roberts is to be believed. What happened was that the senate passed an amendment to the bill that was presented by Roberts himself but which had entirely a different meaning from that which it was supposed to have by the Cochise county senator.

At this session the Cochise county statesman introduced a bill in the senate curtailing the expenditures for all purposes of the guard to $9000 per year, and limiting the organization to 50 men. When it was found the house through the activities of the committee on militia and public defense of which Judge Duncan of Cochise county, past grand commander of the G. A. R. for Arizona, is chairman, and Chairman Jacobs of the code committee, was pushing through the military code for the new code, and when it was found the house passed the bill before the senate could get to the measure of Senator Roberts, that gentleman primed himself to amend the bill when it came over, which he did in a manner satisfactory to himself.

However that does not meet the approval of the militia defenders, who are not at all anxious to have the appropriations received from the national government curtailed by reason of the slim appropriations from the state and the need is now on to have the house if possible refuse to concur in the senate amendments.

AUTOMOBILES IN YOSEMITE

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Secretary Lane is considering whether to admit automobiles to the Yosemite national park and asked the war department to detail Major Wm. T. Littlehant to investigate.

BRYAN AND THE PRESIDENT

There is one disappointment, but no real surprise in the list of the members of the new cabinet announced.

The determination of Wilson to repeat with William J. Bryan the experiment made disastrously by John Quincy Adams with Henry Clay and unhappily by Benjamin Harrison with James G. Blaine has long been apparent. The explanation of this relatively recent conversion of Wilson to the ranks of those democrats who accept the party leadership of Bryan is only one evidence of the modification of his views which has followed his gradual rise to political eminence.

It is useless to pretend that this selection of Bryan will not displease and disappoint thousands of loyal democrats, who will regard it as a covenant with ancient disaster. Nor will it be less disturbing to many citizens outside the narrower party camps, who will see in it a dubious sign for the immediate future.

But the decision has been made. It has been made after long study and a complete opportunity to review the various aspects of what has been the most momentous political problem so far faced by Woodrow Wilson. It remains therefore merely to hope that the apparent logic of Wilson will prove sound and that Bryan will turn out less troublesome to his party and the president in the cabinet than he might have been out of it.

For today the interest in the cabinet is mainly in the presence of Bryan's name on the list. But even this cannot wholly obscure the local satisfaction over the fact that the name of William G. McAdoo is written there and that of Louis D. Brandeis is not. Parochial pride may too be tickled at the fact that New York again claims two places in the cabinet. With a single exception the cabinet is likely to arouse little protest or provoke much unkind criticism.—New York Sun.

CHICAGO DEMOCRATS WIN ALL OVER CITY

Reelect Twenty-Two Aldermen, Judge and City

CHICAGO, April 1.—Democrats swept the city in today's municipal election, re-running twenty-two aldermen and a superior court judge, city clerk, and city treasurer. The proposed bond issue of two million, eight hundred eighty thousand dollars urged by the Hearst-Harrison faction of the democratic party carried by a small majority.

Republicans elected eleven aldermen, progressives, three, and independents one. The progressives had a candidate in every ward, but failed to show strength, being outvoted by the republicans by nearly three to one throughout the city.

Alderman Michael Kenna, known as "Hinky-Dink" and fellow-councilman of Bathhouse John Coughlin of the first ward was returned as usual by an impressive total, getting four thousand, five hundred thirty-eight votes to the progressive seven hundred eleven and the socialists two hundred one. He had no republican opposition.

NEWSPAPER MOAX

Rheims Citizens Take April Fool Joke in Poor Spirit

RHEIMS, April 1.—A Rheims newspaper startled its readers today by the publication of a statement that a Zeppelin dirigible balloon, after cruising over the fortresses at Toul and Verdun had come to earth near the Rheims barracks, having lost both propellers.

Enormous crowds of excited people hurried to the spot indicated but saw no Zeppelin. Then some one remembered it was the first of April.

The people took the joke very badly and large forces of police and gendarmes had to be rushed to the scene to disperse them. It is said the authorities will prosecute the newspaper on a charge of publishing false news likely to cause a breach of peace.
